Teaching: Mind Renewal

Scripture Reference(s): Romans 12:1-2

This teaching has caused my attitude according to the Word. Do I exhibit the fruit of the Spirit at all times? Has my mind been renewed in the Word to the point that it is truly no longer I that live but Christ lives in me? If my mind has truly been transformed by the Word, thoughts that are brought on by the enemy will be immediately cast down (2 Corinthians 10:5) and pondering on things of the world will become less and my affections will be set on things above (Colossians 3:2). The enemy wants to blind the mind of the believers so we won't believe the gospel. I desire to be so focused on the Word in every area of my life that the truth of the Word will speak louder than what man(the World) is saying. The only way this can happen is a total mind renewal, which starts with detoxifying our minds from all the junk that has been allowed in and focusing on the Word. I'm looking forward to this series of mind renewal.

Verse of the Month: Ruth 1:16-17

Jayda Bryant

I chose this scripture because it reminds me to never turn away from God. No matter how I feel, I will not blame God for my wrong doings.

Encouragement:

Never give up on God and he won't give up on you. Always look up to Him. God is with you until the end of time.
