Teaching: Marked for Destiny

Genesis 12:1-4

This teaching has taught me that I am marked. I now understand why God separated me from my family. At the time, i did not understand why he allowed me to leave what was familiar, but now I see that He had a plan and a purpose for my life

God's separation was not to harm me, but to protect me and bring me away from the hurt, pain, and things I had become familar with. He knew I needed healing from the places, experiences, and wounds that had shaped me. God brought me from Florida to North Carolina because He was calling me into a season of healing, deliverance, and purpose. He wanted me to understand that I am marked for destiny.

I had to be healed from strongholds, rejection, depression, oppression, anxiety, fear, and other areas of my life that needed His healing touch. God began restoring me showing me who I truly am in Him.

When I was going through a season of major depression, God used Apostle Bryant and my best friend to help me walk through that difficult time.

Through prayer, encouragement, and the power of His Word, God strengthened me and reminded me that I was never forgotten.

This teaching has changed my life because it reminded me that I am marked for destiny. No matter what the enemy or anyone else says, I know who I am in Christ.

Kids Encouraging Kids

Verse of the Month:

"I can do all things through Christ who Strenthens me."

Phillipians 4:13

This verse encourages me by saying how I can do anything and everything through Jesus Christ. It also explains how he strengthen us every day to do the things that we need to do in our everyday life and more.

This verse also encourages you by showing you that no matter what, Christ is there for you. If you ever feel lonely and leftout, God gives you the strength to keep going, because He has a purpose for all of us. ~Sky Costin
